MOTORCYCLE HISTORY

THE SPORTSTER PART 2

HARLEY-DAVIDSON XR-750

During the 1970s, stunt rider Evel Knievel thrilled audiences around the world with his incredible aerial motorcycle jumps over various objects. The type of bike that Mr. Knievel used for many years was the Harley-Davidson XR-750. Stunt riders Bubba Blackwell and Doug Danger have also utilized the XR-750 in their motorcycle jumps.

Is the XR-750 a Sportster? A close cousin to the Sportster, the XR-750 has been produced since 1970, and has won more races than any other motorcycle in AMA racing history. Although a street version of the XR750 was never built. Due to consumer demand, Harley-Davidson introduced a street-legal Sportster version of the XR-750 called the XR-1000 in 1983.

A 265.492mph speed record was set on a Harley-Davidson Sportster in 1970. One of the most famous motorcycle racers of all time was Leo Payne. In 1969, while riding his custom-built Sportster, Mr. Payne was the first person to reach a speed of over 200 mph on a non-streamliner motorcycle at the Bonneville Salt Flats.

In 1970, a racer named Cal Rayborn broke the world land speed record for a motorcycle, at the Bonneville salt flats in Utah. The streamliner motorcycle that Mr. Rayborn utilized attained speeds over 260 mph, and was powered by a single Harley-Davidson Sportster engine.

The Sportster Hugger came on the scene in 1988, and its smaller size was designed to attract beginners, and female riders. This model was essentially an XLH 883 with a lowered rear suspension, different seat, handlebars, and 1977 Harley-Davidson XLCR shocks. The Hugger models are actually very similar to the modern "Low" models. Also in 1988, the 1,100 cc Sportster motor was replaced with a 1200 cc engine. In 1993, the chain drive was replaced with a belt drive.

In the year 2007, all Sportster models began using fuel injection instead of a carburetor.

In 2008, Harley-Davidson entered the modern sportbike market with the debut of the XR1200 Sportster. Somewhat inspired by the XR-750, this model was phased-out in 2011. In recent years, Harley-Davidson has produced an assortment of factory model 'custom'-style Sportsters. For example, the XL1200V "Seventy-Two" model Sportster is a factory model custom that is inspired by 1970s chopper and bobber-style customs. Introduced in 2012, this stripped-down model features whitewall tires, a peanut fuel tank, pin-striping, high handlebars and metal flake paint.

Other factory customs include the 883 cc and 1200 cc SuperLow, the XL 1200X Forty-Eight, the Iron 883, and the blacked-out Nightster.

In recent years, Sportsters have experienced another surge in popularity with riders of all ages. Being a fast, attractive, and inexpensive bike that also happens to be a Harley-Davidson makes the Sportster a very appealing vehicle.

PATCHWORK PUP PARTY

Patchworks annual Party, free to all,
and everyone has a great time as you can see!

JOHNNY'S BAD DAY

Johnny sits at the bar staring at his drink when a large, trouble-making biker steps up next to him, grabs his drink, gulps it down in one swig, and menacingly says, "Well thank you! Whatcha gonna to do about it?"

Johnny burst into tears.

"Come on, man," the biker says, "I didn't think you'd CRY. I can't stand to see a man crying. What's your problem?"

"This is the worst day of my life," Johnny says. "I'm a complete failure. I was late to a meeting and my boss fired me. When I went to the parking lot, I found my car had been stolen and I don't have any insurance. I left my wallet in the cab I took home. I found my wife in bed with the postman, and then my dog bit me. So, I come to this bar to work up the courage to put an end to it all. I buy a drink, drop a capsule in, and sit here watching the poison dissolve, and then you show up and drink the whole thing! ...But enough about me, how's your day going?"

We are all looking for things that are better built today. We want our cars, motorcycles, and houses to stand the test of time. As expensive as everything is today, we sure don't want things to fall apart. We're looking for quality and extended warranties on most everything - as we should!

But how the heck do we insure ourselves with quality lives that will endure the test of time? Jesus the Master Builder, who created and built Heaven and Earth, has a no fail plan for us. He tells us if we hear His words, get them inside of us, and then act on them, we will become unshakable! It takes time - it's surely not a snap your fingers thing - but the results are worth the investment.

Jesus said this is in comparison to building your house on a solid foundation. When a storm comes - and we all know that storms do come in life - as the rain comes down in torrents, the flood waters rise, and the wind beats against the house, it won't fall because it's been built on solid ground.

Anyone who hears these words of Jesus but doesn't obey them is foolish. It's like a person who builds his house on shifting sand, and when the storms do come, with the rain, floods, and wind, then the house will crash to the ground and great will be its fall. So build your life on the unshakable, unchangeable, everlasting word of God. So when all hell breaks loose at your house and the odds are stacked against you, you my friend will be standing while others have fallen to the ground. Build your life upon Christ Jesus, the solid rock, who never fails, never changes, and is always faithful to come through for you.

Great day of ministry at the Yukon Czech Festival and Parade. We started out the morning in the parade and then had a tent set up to share the gospel, give out Bibles and tracts, and share about our ministry. It was a fantastic day to share the love of Christ with others in the community! Thanks to Priesthood and Bikers for Christ for joining us in the parade!
